Worksheet for Lessons Two and Three: Investigate the Source and Further Investigation

Directions:

1. After you complete Lessons Two and Three of Check, Please!, compose two short one-paragraph summaries, one for each lesson followed by at least one additional paragraph that addresses your experience of completing the lessons.
2. Include the first and last name of the site's author and his credentials on first reference. Keep in mind that your first paragraphs, your summaries, offer an objective overview.
3. In the paragraph or paragraphs that follow, turn to your own experience. One way to begin the third paragraph is to consider what part of the lesson you found most useful.
4. Follow your paragraphs with a work cited entry for the site.
